

GERMAN CULTURE AND CONVERSATION COURSE FOR NURSES

This course is complementary to the levels B1 and B2 and is directed to learn German for the workplace in Germany, understand how the care planning works, the care process, the role in a medical organization, and functions of the care worker in German.

Content

- Introduction to patient
- Anatomy
- Body care
- Who works in the hospital? - Activities
- Care facilities
- Image description - means of speech
- Hours of service
- Nursing history
- Care planning
- Care report
- Service handover
- Personal hygiene
- Talk to caregivers
- Observe and discuss symptoms
- Image description
- Dangerous care
- Violence in care
- Behavior in emergency situations
- Handling medication
- Food requests
- Aids
- Doctor and nursing visit
- Decubitus and wound care
- Prophylaxis
- Dementia
- Vital sign check and emergencies
- Admission - discharge - transition
- Medication administration
- Infusion, transfusion, blood draw
- Celebrations for those in need of care
- Palliative care and living wills
- Handover talk

- Instructional talk
- Cooperation with related professions
- Mentally ill patients
- Culturally sensitive care
- Tips for exam preparation